NOTE FROM THE PREZ:

Happy Autumn—this is such a refreshing time of year, with lots going on in music world. At the risk of sounding like a broken record, I reiterate that if you haven't been out to any of the numerous SAW events listed here, perhaps now would be a good time to give it a whirl. In my mind, one of the benefits of being a songwriter is the community that you are automatically part of if you choose to get involved—you will be amazed at the people you will meet, lifelong friends you can make, wonderful music you will hear and how much you can learn. And you will most likely have a great time doing it!

SAW would like to thank Lisa Hawkins and Todd Cullop of Convergence Church in Alexandria, for supporting our artistic goals by generously offering us use of their space.

Best regards,

Jean

SAW SEMINAR: Making Music Our Profession—Can We Quit our Day Job Yet?

Co-Sponsors - WAMA, NSAI, BSA, and DC Cabaret Network

Saturday, November 10, 2007, 10 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Don't miss this opportunity to join the experts from the PRO's - Performing Rights Organizations: ASCAP's Michael Kerker and Tom Desavia; BMI's Fred Cannon and Barbara Cane; and SESAC's

Linda Lorence Critelli, will present an outstanding panel discussion on becoming a Professional in the music biz. Come and meet the experts and hear all the hot issues of the day.....

1. What's realistic goal for you? What are the odds for success?
2. How to get a fix on your audience - what do they want to hear and what will they buy?
3. How to promote yourself?
4. How to pitch your music to the 'already famous'?
5. Do you need an agent; do you need a manager; do you need anybody or can you do it all yourself?
6. How NOT to get ripped off (protecting your rights).
7. Should I start my own publishing company?
8. Is a tour right for you?
9. Do independents have a chance to get on the radio?
10. What about pitching your songs to the movies and TV?
11. How has the internet changed everything? (there will be a follow-up month-long seminar on this topic alone!)
12. How can the PROs help you? Why are there 3 PROs? Which to join?
13. What is the state of the record industry and what are the issues that will affect songwriters and artists?

Date: Saturday, November 10th

Time: 10 am to 1 pm

Place: DC Bar Association, 1200 H Street NW, Washington, DC
Metro Center; street and lot parking nearby

Fee: $30 Members (SAW, WAMA, NSAI, DC Cabaret Network)

How to Present Yourself As a Musician: Creating a Basic Promo Kit

Tentative Date: Saturday, November 3

The Lab, 1819 N. Quaker Lane, Alexandria VA. (Take the Shirlington exit off of I-395 and follow the signs to Quaker Lane, then take the second left on Crestwood Drive. The Lab is the first building on the left, with the entrance facing Crestwood Drive)

If you want good gigs, you need a good promo kit. With that in mind, SAW will be offering the workshop, "How to Present Yourself As a Musician: Creating a Basic Promo Kit," on a continuing basis. If you are interested in attending, e-mail Loralyn Coles at loralyn@mindspring.com, and once a minimum of 5-6 people have signed up, we will confirm the time, date, and location. This is a 4 hour, hands-on workshop, so you'll be working on your promo kit in the class. The cost is $40 for SAW, WAMA, NSAI, or BSA Members, $45 for non-members. For a detailed description of the workshop as it was offered in July, 2006, go to: <http://loralyn.net/lc/html/workshops.html>.

The Flexible Voice Class

Tentative date: Saturday, November 3

The Lab, 1819 N. Quaker Lane, Alexandria VA.

There isn't very much time, and we'll hit the ground running! A refresher (and lots of things you might not have known!) for those who know how to sing, and a great introduction to voice for those who don't. The class will cover both vocal and performance technique including 1) vocal/breath warm-ups, 2) physiology of the voice--knowledge crucial to getting the most out of your instrument, 3) performance skills to really NAIL a song, 4) exploring & enhancing your voice, and add strengthening exercises to shake out the unsteady parts. You'll learn a personal basic regimen to maintain skills learned and work on specific issues & exercises for musicians with other instrumental and songwriting skills. Siobhan Quinn has presented this master class from New York to North Carolina, and Washington DC to Colorado to rave reviews. For more details or to register contact Siobhan@roundhousemusic.com. There will be a limited number of slots available in this class, so register early!

Siobhan Quinn has infectious enthusiasm and encourages singers of every genre and level. She teaches privately in Alexandria, VA, and has taught at Warren Wilson College's Swannanoa Gathering, University of VA/Charlottesville Young Writers Program, Kerrville Folk Festival, Rocky Mountain Song School, Great American Masters Music Industry Workshop, and coached vocal performance at Summersongs & Wintersongs retreats among many other locations. "I learned more in 5 days with Siobhan than I did in my entire previous cumulative experience over 15 years of academic and advanced choral training. I will be able to use the knowledge imparted in this class immediately and forcefully, and have been doing so already since my arrival home." Phil Traynor, St. Petersburg, FL Swannanoa Gathering student 2006

If interested in attending, please contact the presenters at the email addresses listed below so that time and date for these workshops can be confirmed.

Loralyn Coles at loralyn@mindspring.com

We've set up a yahoo list for the Song Circle, which we will use primarily for announcements.

Members can either add their name to the list by sending e-mail to SAWSongCircle-subscribe@yahogroups.com or remove their name from the list by sending e-mail to SAWSongCircle-unsubscribe@yahogroups.com

NEW LOCATION: SAW Songwriter Xchange

Every FOURTH Saturday, 10 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

The Lab, 1819 N. Quaker Lane, Alexandria VA. (Take the Shirlington exit off of I-395 and follow the signs to Quaker Lane, then take the second left on Crestwood Drive. The Lab is the first building on the left, with the entrance facing Crestwood Drive)

After years at Jammin Java in Vienna, VA, the Xchange is moving to a new meeting space. We are grateful to the Brindley brothers and the staff at Jammin Java for their generosity in hosting us. They've been very supportive, and we'll miss the food! We wouldn't think of leaving, except that the stage frequently has an event scheduled, and we've outgrown the space upstairs in the instruction rooms.

Starting with the October 27 meeting, our new home is the Lab. We are very excited about this new venue--The Lab is a large room with plenty of chairs and tables, a piano, and a stage. We would like to thank the Convergence Church for offering us the use of this wonderful space. Nothing else about the Xchange is changing, just the venue. Oh, and bring your own coffee if you like... ;-)

Get feedback on your songs-in-progress from an audience of friendly peers. Hosted by Dan Grove and Paige Powell, with monthly guest artists providing their unique insight into the songwriting process. Bring your original song with 8 or 10 lyric sheets, or just come sit in with us. For directions or more info call Paige at (703) 671-4131 or e-mail Dan at songxchange@comcast.net

SONGWRITER EXCHANGE UPDATE:

Mark your calendars for October 27, the first Xchange in our new location. Our guest artist is SAW President and guiding light Jean Bayou!

As her web site, JeanBayou.com, says, she has "maneuvered her way through motherhood, womanhood, the neighborhood (and other hoods too numerous to mention) to write songs of love, loss, redemption and bad family vacations." She writes and performs on piano and guitar, and has also played percussion and vibes in jazz ensembles. Her songs range from serious foreshadowing of future events to witty takes on what passes for normal in the world. Oh, and at least one way to bend the rules in your favor... ;-)

After directing SAW's Mid-Atlantic Song Contest for three years, and now serving as the SAW President, she knows the songwriting community as well as anyone. Come hear Jean share her songs and wisdom, bring your own song, and help us launch our new venue!

OTHER UPCOMING ARTISTS:

November 24—Mary Battiata

December—no meeting

SAW/Oneness School Songwriter Showcase

Friday, October 19, 2007, 7:30 – 10:30 p.m.

OTHER NEWS/EVENTS

SAW Members: send your news for inclusion in this section to Aisha at sawnotes@saw.org.

Rachel and Henry Cross Have Lost Their Home and Need Our Help

Rachel and Henry Cross' house in Takoma Park, MD burnt down in August 2007. They and all their animal friends survived, but Henry's recording equipment and Rachel and Henry's instruments are not covered under their insurance. While Rachel and Henry are awed by the generosity of our community, they ask you hold off on in-kind donations of stuff until they have a clear idea of what they need, what they lost and what is covered. But please feel free to email Rachel and Henry your support at cross@tidalwave.net or call 301-589-7768.

1. You can mail cards of support and cash donation. Please write checks to: Rachel and Henry Cross and mail to 812 Gist Ave, Silver Spring, MD 20910
2. Donate to the "Rachel and Henry Cross Fund" currently set up at Chuck Levin's, 11151 Veirs Mill Road, Wheaton, MD 20902. <http://www.chucklevins.com> Call Chuck Levin's at 301-946-8808 and ask for Abbie Levin. This will be where Henry will buy his new studio and Rachel some instruments.

3. Buy a gift card at "Musicians Friend," <http://www.musiciansfriend.com/giftcertificate>. This is where Rachel will replace certain instruments. Any questions, ideas please email Mary Sue Twohy at twohies@aol.com

SAW plans to host a Rachel and Henry tribute in December. Contact Ron Goad (mistergoad@aol.com) for more information.

Wanna Vote for the Wammies?

SAW is sponsoring the Songwriter of the Year Award again this year in conjunction with WAMA (the Washington Area Music Association), which will be presented at the WAMA Awards (Wammies) in February 2008. Only dues-paying members of WAMA can nominate and vote for their favorite artists in the Washington area in all genres. Go to SAW's website for a joint membership form (you receive a $10 discount on both memberships) or you can go to www.wamadc.org for other membership options. Vote early, vote often!

Capitol Rocks Presents Guitars Not Guns Virginia Concert Event

Capitol Rocks, a local organization dedicated to the music and the musicians that provided the soundtrack for DC's Rock and Roll explosion, have selected GnG Virginia as the beneficiary of this year's fundraising concert. This is an all day event that is appropriate for the whole family. The concert will be held at Fort Hunt Park in Alexandria Virginia from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Sunday October 7th. For directions and information on Capitol Rocks and the bands that will be playing go to www.capitolrocks.com; for information about GnG Virginia go to www.guitarsnotguns.org/Virginia.html.

There is no admission fee for this event but we ask that all attendees make a tax deductible donation to GnG Virginia. You may send your donation to Guitars Not Guns, PO Box 1141, Springfield VA 22151. Donations cannot be accepted at the event. Fort Hunt is a Federal park and as such does not permit fundraising on park land. GnG volunteers will be there to tell you about our program and answer your questions.

Monthly Songwriter's Jam

Every third Saturday, in collaboration with Picker's Supply Music Store, there will be a monthly "Songwriter's Jam" from 2 – 5 p.m. Area songwriters are invited to attend. These are not critique sessions; they are simply song sharing events that can help songwriters network and to gain additional performing experience in a friendly atmosphere. Advance notice not required; just show up ready to share some songs.

Where: Picker's Supply Concert Hall; 902 Caroline St; Fredericksburg, VA; 540-371-4669
For more information contact Frank Dieter, www.frankdieter.com, at 540-580-8002

Electric Maid Events

The Electric Maid Community Living Room at 268 Carroll Street, NW, Washington, DC 20012 has some remarkable music coming up on Saturday, October 6th and Sunday, October 7, 2007.

Saturday, October 6, 2007

7 p.m.

A wonderful group of musicians and songwriters from Fredericksburg, VA in concert with Blues prodigies the J&B Blues Project and the wonderful young songwriters Alexander Gunn and Alex Culbreth in concert. Suggested donation at the door is $7.00, much of which will go to support the continuation of the Electric Maid Community Living Room as a venue.

Sunday, October 7, 2007

1 p.m. (same time as the Takoma Park Street Festival, just down the street)

The Erins, a wonderful folk singer-songwriter duo, new to the East Coast, in concert. Suggested donation of $5 at the door.

Get a Gig at the Electric Maid Community Living Room

Artists are invited to apply to play at the Electric Maid Community Living Room. Also, Electric Maid Community Living Room will be rentable now for band rehearsal space at reasonable rates and a new open mike and a new song exchange will be starting there soon. Contact Joel for details at pomerani@yahoo.com or 240-383-9732. The Electric Maid needs your continued support and involvement!

MEMBER NOTES

This section is open to any type of music announcement SAW members would like to make. Just send your message to sawnotes@saw.org a week before the end of the month for inclusion in the next newsletter.

Allan Harrington Releases TWO New CDs: Tick Tock and Whatever Floats Your Boat

MASC award winner Allan Harrington announces the release of two new cds, Tick Tock and Whatever Floats Your Boat.

The Tick Tock CD is jazz influenced with blues overtones. These CDs features some of the areas finest players, Scott Harlan on bass; Joshua Rich on piano, Todd Ledbetter on soprano sax; Mike Gedzelman on alto, Jordyn Blakely and Anthony Junior on drums. Vocalists include Carol Gaylor, Myriette Jno-Lewis, Jua, Shashi Becker. Whatever Floats Your Boat is blues-inspired with a nice "island" feeling song (Left it all Behind). This CD also introduces vocalist Danielle Rosner on two songs, including one she co-wrote with Allan. Allan continues to write and record, and is currently working on a film project and a project with Danielle. Allan performs locally with his group "Allan and Friends".

Margot MacDonald releases CD and is named non-profit's national spokesperson Margot MacDonald has released her new album, TORN, a Pop-Rock CD of 10 original tunes by the 15-yr old songwriter. MASC has honored Margot for songs off the album, including the Young Artist Award. Produced by Marco Delmar, TORN is receiving international airplay and on MySpace has shown record plays for an unsigned rock artist. CD reviews have compared Margot's vocals to Amy Lee, Stevie Nicks, Paula Cole. A percentage of the sales from TORN are donated to the Ground Control Drunk Driving Prevention Campaign. Margot has recently been named the campaign's 2007-08 National Spokesperson and will be touring the US.
